DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 9, 10, 13 and 15 are objected to because of the following informalities:
The claims are not in one sentence form as required by MPEP 608.01(m) and 37 CFR 1.75(i). Also MPEP 608.01(m) and 37 CFR 1.75(i) reserve the use of parenthesis in a claim for reference characters. Applicants use of parenthesis in claim 10 is improper. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
3. Claims 4, 5, 7 and 9-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Applicants use of the alternative phrase "or" in claims 4, 5, 7 and 9-16 renders the claim indefinite since it cannot be determined which element is being claimed.

Applicants use of the expression "i.e." in claim 10 renders the claim indefinite. Is applicant claiming this limitation or not?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2 and 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hendrickson 5,511,706.

Hendrickson teaches a carrying apparatus comprising a base portion 46, 36, 38, an accessory portion 44, means for removable fastening 64, means for removable attaching 90, and a hinge 50.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Claims 4, 5 and 11-16 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
